BRITON PROCLAMATIONS

Ignored by the Boers, Who Leave Their Homes to Fight.

GLOOMY TIDINGS FROM MAFEKING

The Whites Living on a Quart of Sausage Daily - Everything Else ings. Eatable Has Gone.

London, May 9 .- Four thousand cavalry watered their horses at Zand River Monday, 25 miles beyond Smaldeel, where Lord Roberts continues to date his dispatches.

The scouts who have been searching the country for miles along the stream have found no Boers south of the The enemy are laagered in unknown force on the north bank.

Thus the British advance guard is within 45 miles of Kroonstad. The Free Staters, in the expectation that Kroonstad will speedily become untenable, are, according to information from Lorenzo Marques, preparing to appear to have little effect upon the prominent candidate for the speaker inhabitants of the invaded districts. Every farm is found deserted excent by the women and children. All the men are away fighting.

Reports at headquarters are now wiring freely concerning the incidents connected with the occupation of Smaldeel. Some exasperation is expressed at the ease with which the Boers escape with their transports before the very eyes of the British. For instance, when the British entered Smaldeal the Boer ox wagons colly outspanned only five miles away, as if in contempt of the ability of the British to overtake them.

Lord Roberts is bescribed as "rightly unwilling to sacrifice his horses for the saks of a comparatively minor advantage. Nevertheless, the waste of horseflesh, in spite of all precautions, Smaldeel is a village of only a score of dwellings, but it expanded in one night to a vast canvas city and the glow of the camp fires was like a scene an iron smelting district. The city is likely to fade away in a day by the immediate progress of the infantry to Zand River.

The tidings from Mafeking are gloomier than ever. Everybody there has an empty stomach and a pinched face. The natives are no longer given even porridge, and the whites now have nothing but a quart of that substance and a pound of horse sausage daily. Everything else eatable has gone. Insufficient food, wet trenches and cold nights are deadly to the health of the garrison. This information comes from reliable natives. Lady Sarah Wilson, under date of April 27,

"The Boers now number 4,500, including young Eleff, President Kruger's grandson, who has sent for six

The Mafeking correspondent of The Times, who also emphasizes the extreme gravity of the situation, says:

"It is impossible to ignore the signif-icance of Colonel Baden-Powell's reference to the hardships endured by the women and children, among whom many deaths have already occurred. The commissariat is holding a certain stock of foodstuffs in reserve for use in the direst extremity."

The British column is reported to have reached Taungs, 30 miles north of Warrenton. According to Pretoria advices the British are nearing Vryburg, which is half way between Warrenton and Mafeking. General Hunter is probably not in personal command of this relief column.

His forces embrace 20,000 infantry and from 5,000 to 6,000 horsemen, an army far greater than has hitherto supposed. Lord Methuen is apparently a subordinate. While the relief column is moving towards Vryburg Gen. Hunter is aparently preparing an orderly advance northeast along the Vaal river, to participate in the Pretoria advance as Lord Roberts' left flank.

Cape Town correspondents learn that an iportant movement in Natal is expected within the next four days. Gen. Buller is rapidly completing his transport organization.

The proceedings of the Transvaal volksraad indicate President Kruger's undiminished tenacity of purpose. In the course of the debate he said that, should he be sent to St. Helena, the republican cause would still go on. Gens. Louis Botha and Lucas Meyer are in Pretoria, consulting with the "olksraad. A dispatch from Maseru, Basutoland, dated Tuesday, said:

"Lord Roberts' rapid advance has eonfused the Boers, who are holding the roads between Wepener and Clocolan, along which a continuous stream of wagons and cattle has been proceeding northward for days. On Monday some of these countermarched, and the herds got into an inextricable muddle, the Boers not knowing which way to turn."

Geneva, Ala., May 7.-An unknown negro, about 20 years old, was lynched near here yesterday. He assaulted a 12-year-old white girl near Hartford Tuesday and was captured later and taken before the mayor of Hartford for preliminary trial. The officers claim that when about three miles from Geneva they were overpowered by armed men, who took charge of the prisoner and carried him into the woods. He was found dead, hanging to a limb not far from the public road.

Trouble between the two be gan over the painting of a line fence between the premises of John R. Bellinger, father of the deceased, and the Baptist parsonage at Bamberg. Charlotte, N. C., May 7 .- While dying of a suicidal shot in the head, preceded by a lethal dose of laudanum, Samuel H. Hawkins explained by implication his reasons for the act, saying, "No one knows how I have suffered for the past two months." Hawkins, mak-ing New Year's calls with several friends, visited the home of a promi-nent banker of this city. While there Hawkins showed some signs of being intoxicated, and as several ladies were present, the banker politely asked him if he had not better retire to his room. The wound to his pride was never recovered from.

Atlanta, Ga., May 8 .- The city council last night adopted a resolution calling on Mayor James G. Woodward to resign his office. The resolution was the culmination of a sermon Sunday night by Rev. L. G. Broughton, in which the minister made a violent atto resign before the next meeting of the council. The leader of the opposition to Mr. Woodward says the caryor is in honor bound, under the terms of a statement made last summer, to ro- paracendent of education, Jumes J. sign. The mayor today declined to say what his action would be. His term expires Jan. 1.

Charlestown, W. Va., May 8.—Insane jealousy of his 17-year-old bride drove George W. Stewart, of Pond Fork Creek, to kill his brother Frank. The boy was 13 years old, and in the three months he had known his new sisterin-law they had grown to be great friends. The elder brother noticed their friendliness and his ire became aroused. The boy came to visit again on Thursday, and in the elder brother's presence his wife laid her hand caressingly on the boy's head. Stewart flew into a passion and ordered the boy to go home. Mrs. Stewart chided her husband for his folly and told the boy not to mind him. Stewart then got his double-barreled shotgun and fired a load of shot into his brother's brain, killing him instantly. He then fied. Officers were sent for, and yes-terday they found Stewart in the woods. When called upon to surrender he placed the muzzle of the gun to his head and blew out his brains. ADMIRAL DEWEY IN MEMPHIS.

Mr. Editor :-Through your paper I wish to call the attention of our race as far as possible to the fact that the Census Bureau is planning to make a special effort during the taking of the Census in June to find the exact amount of property of every description that is owned by the Negro race. This means a great deal to us as a people, as we will be very largely judged by the world by the result. *It is of the utmost imporsance that each individual member of the race in every part of the country begin at once to make a careful list of the amount and value of the property that he owns so as to be really to give it at once to the census taker. It is also important that as far as possible ministers and teachers call the attention of the people to this matter as far in advance as may be thought best.

Brooklyn, Aug. 15, 1891—This is to certify that came to New York from Albany. I was a stranger in a strange city, out of work and out of money. I had no luck in anything I undertook, What to do I did not know. A riend advised me to go and see Dr. Shea. I did. He told me the cause of my troublet he took me in and treated me as a brother. Through him I got a good position that very week. I bad been to others; they took my money and did me no good. I bless the day I first met Br. Shea, I would advise all in bad luck, sick or in trouble to go to him at once, Sincerely.

Hearing of the wonderful things Dr. Shea was doing, I resolved to consult him. He told me my husband was allve and well and where he was; told me he would come home and when. To mysjoy all of it came wore. He is home now, come back like one from the dead. I also wish to say that this month I lost the sum of $250. I am a poor woman and I was most insane I went to Dr. Shea and he told me i would find it as he told me. I thank God there is a man so gifted in our midst that can help people and tell them what to do.

Sincerely,

A SENSATION IN BROOKLYN-A MINIS TER'S STATEMENT. I wish to state that one of my parishoners was sick and in trouble for a long time, Mrs. Brown, 37 Gay Street. No one seemed to understand her case. She had several doctors, but none of them seemed to know what was the matter. None could do her any good. It was my duty as her pastor to call and see her. Hearing of the wonderful work being done by Dr. Shea the last few years, I thought I would call and see him myself. I found him a kind sympathetic gentleman. He gave me a wonderful test of his powers; told me to send him a lock of patient's hair, which I did by her daughter.

He told atonce what was the matter and in a short time cured her sound and well. Her family had seemingly been under a cloud. Now all is changed. All are well and prosperons. I can truly and heartly recommend Dr. Shea to all those in sickness or distress of any kind, Rev. William Johnson, Pastor Lebanon Church, Brooklyn.

Dr. Shea can show thousands such at the last see heep carefully educated in the Herman.
